

Training Opportunities for Prevention Professionals

CADCA free online courses available visit

<http://learning.cadca.org/available-courses>

SAMHSA practitioner training offers tools, training, and technical assistance to practitioners in fields of mental health and substance use disorders.

<https://www.samhsa.gov/practitioner-training>

Centers of Disease Control and Prevention

<https://www.cdc.gov/learning/training-resources/index.html>

Tall Cop

<https://www.tallcopsaysstop.com/>

Higher Education Center for Alcohol and Drug Misuse Prevention and Recovery

<https://hecaod.osu.edu/trainings/>

Operation Parent free recorded webinars for parents

<https://operationparent.org/resource-manager/>

Prevention Technology Transfer Center Network

<https://pttcnetwork.org/centers/new-england-pttc/free-demand-prevention-courses>

TRAIN is a national learning network that provides quality training opportunities for professionals who protect and improve the public's health.

<https://www.train.org/main/welcome>