The Fierce Urgency of Now: Equitable Engagement for the Preventionist

After participating in this training, participants will be able to:

- Discover how behavioral health disparities and other inequities play a role in behavioral health and substance use/misuse.
- Define terminology linked to the discussion of health equity (such as SDOH)
- Describe the overarching role of prevention in moving towards equity
- Learn the important relationship of equity and our field of prevention science work

Carlton Hall is the President and CEO of Carlton Hall Consulting LLC (CHC), a multi-faceted, full-service consulting firm designed to provide customized solutions and enable measurable change for communities, organizations, families and individuals. Carlton Hall has been providing intensive substance abuse prevention focused and community problem solving services to the nation for the last 25 years. His responsibilities, unique set of skills and experience have made him one of the most highly sought-after instructors and guides for community problem solving in every state and territory in the nation as well as internationally, with successful achievements in South Africa, Ghana, Bermuda, Kenya and others. Currently, Carlton and the CHC team provide executive training and technical assistance support to the Southeast PTTC (Region 4).
